THE POLITICAL STATE.

The Republican Caucus Yesterday--

Dilly-Dallying with Garfield.

[Washington dispatch Cincinnati Gazette.]
The result of the caucus yesterday was a surprise to many. It was expected that the caucus would be a mere formality, and that Garfield would be elected without opposition. But the caucus was a long and bitter struggle, and Garfield was elected by a narrow margin. The caucus was held at the Hotel Hamilton, and was attended by about 100 members of the Republican party. The caucus was held at 4 o'clock, and lasted until 11 o'clock. Garfield was elected by a vote of 68 to 32. The caucus was a long and bitter struggle, and Garfield was elected by a narrow margin.
